

DEMOCRATS OF KENTUCKY ACTIVE

Bourbon Opens Campaign — Southern Governor To Visit State

Paris, Ky., Sept. 22.—Politics in Bourbon county is beginning to warm up with both parties organized and a poll of the city and county is being taken. Democrats claim the county will give Cox an increased majority over 1919, when Governor Black carried it by 442 votes over Governor Morrow. They believe it will give a majority of not less than 500, and many pass the 600 mark. It is believed that the county will poll a total vote of more than 9,000, and to meet the situation the county court, Judge George Batterson sitting with W. A. Thomson and W. D. McIntyre as an advisory board, have increased the number of voting precincts from 29 tentatively agreed upon to a total of 31.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sept. 22.—Congressman W. J. Fields, of this district, and James Mott McDaniel, of Lexington, addressed a large crowd at the court house here in the interest of the Democratic party. The speakers were introduced by John G. Winn.

Winchester, Ky., Sept. 22.—Governor Charles H. Brough, of Arkansas, will speak in Winchester Wednesday, September 22, in behalf of the Democratic national ticket. The meeting will be held at the court house.

WHAT GERARD SAYS OF CAMPAIGN FUND

(By Associated Press) Washington, Sept. 22.—While the Democratic national finance committee is not limiting the size of its campaign contributions from single individuals, a $2,000,000 total will be sufficient for the Democratic national campaign, James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, testified today before the senate campaign investigating committee. Gerard added that he had raised $128,000 so far, and would be thankful if he could raise a million dollars.

"Would you take $15,000,000 if you got it?" asked Chairman Kenyon. "No, that would be too large," said Gerard. "So large a sum would shock the public conscience and insure the defeat of the party."

SAYS PROHIBITION WILL ALWAYS STAND

(By Associated Press) Washington, Sept. 22.—Dr. Harvey Wiley, formerly Chief Chemist of the Department of Agriculture, told the International Congress Against Alcoholism today that American business "will stand like a rock against nullification of the prohibition enforcement act." The Bureau said the storm would diminish in intensity. Warnings on the Gulf Coast were ordered.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 22.—The wind here dropped to 18 miles an hour today. It is believed the hurricane has dissipated itself.

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 22.—Texas coast cities breathed easier today in the belief that the tropical hurricane which threatened to smite a wide strip of territory between Galveston and Corpus Christi, had curved away from the Texas coast. Elaborate precautions, however, to withstand the hurricane have not been released.

KENTUCKIAN MAY HEAD THE LEGION

(By Associated Press) Cleveland, O., Sept. 22.—Who is to head the American Legion the coming year is receiving attention in anticipation of the second annual convention of the Legion opening in Cleveland, September 27.

Among those mentioned here for the office of commander are Milton J. Foreman, of Illinois, Emmett O'Neal, of Kentucky, Hanford MacNider, of Iowa, and F. W. Galbraith, of Ohio.

Foreman was a colonel and state commander. When he took charge of the Illinois department it was 21st in Legion membership. Now it is first. Foreman who is more than 60 years old, served also in the Spanish-American war.

Kentucky is boosting O'Neal for the leadership because of his activity in Legion affairs, especially as an organizer and leader.

MacNider is said to have more decorations than any other American with the exception of General Pershing. Nine of them are for valor. He is a bank president in Mason City, Iowa, and vice commander of the department of Iowa.

Galbraith was a colonel and state commander like Foreman. He was commander of the Ohio department until the Ohio convention at Youngstown, elected his successor.

Col. C. C. Chambers, of Cleveland, convention executive chairman, predicts that the convention will surpass in numbers any ever held in the country, not excepting the great gatherings of the Grand Army of the Republic.

HAGGARD TRIAL AT WINCHESTER TODAY

Young Wife of Slayer Issues Statement and Withdraws Her Divorce Suit

(By Associated Press) Winchester, Ky., Sept. 22.—A throng filled the circuit court room today when the case against Rodney Haggard, charged with the murder of Ben W. Good, was called for trial. Haggard was apparently undisturbed by the charge.

Winchester, Ky., Sept. 22.—Attorneys for the commonwealth and for the defense in the case against Rodney Haggard, charged with the murder of Ben W. Good, answered ready for trial Tuesday morning and the case will be called Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Chester Pierson, Sam Hodgkin and Robert Swope were sworn in as special deputies to assist Sheriff H. C. Hodgkin and his deputies in summoning the venire of 116 men drawn from the jury wheel.

J. S. Mullins, father of Mrs. Nancy Haggard, Tuesday issued a statement in response to the one issued by her daughter after she withdrew her suit for divorce against Rodney Haggard. The statement in part follows: "As to her being ill advised, I want to make facts clear as best I can. The girl talked with me and she talked with her mother and she told both of us that she had decided that she would have to have a divorce. She was living apart from her husband then under an agreement of separation. We advised with her just as any father and as any mother would advise under like circumstances and though I truly hope not, I very much fear that the future might show that her father and mother were not far wrong in what they advised her to do."

"All through this unfortunate affair I have simply done my duty as I saw it and have stood by my daughter. I have taken no part in the criminal prosecution of the murder charge against her husband only in so far as it was necessary to protect her character. I know that she has not been guilty of any improper conduct. She was promised everything that would appeal to a frantic child if she would take this action. She was practically kidnapped from her father's house and left without a hat on her head and even left the baby here with me. I, of course, feel that she did not know what she was doing, but hope that all will be for the best. As to the public, I hope I cannot be censured for protecting my family and the honor of a daughter whom I know to be blameless."

Mrs. Haggard, who Monday withdrew her suit for divorce, was to go to Lexington Tuesday to visit her husband in the Fayette county jail for the first time since he was arrested for killing Ben Good on the street several weeks ago.

The decision to withdraw the suit came after she had talked the matter over with Judge Frank Haggard, her brother-in-law. After the action she went to the home of Gordon Haggard, uncle of her husband, and refused to return to her father, Jailer J. S. Mullins, with whom she had been living since separating from her husband two months before the killing of Good.

In withdrawing the suit for divorce, Mrs. Haggard made the following statement: "Some days ago there was published in various papers a statement over my signature, also extracts from the petition I had filed against my husband, Rodney Haggard, for divorce and alimony, and from the deposition I had given."

"I have done an injustice to my husband and I am now writing you and asking you to publish this in order to correct this wrong as far as possible."

"In filing the suit against my husband I was badly advised. I was suffering under a terrible mental strain and was advised that my husband was about to file suit against me, and that if I would sue him first and testify that he had treated me cruelly and struck me I would get a lot of alimony."

"It was not true that my husband had struck me or treated me cruelly. He has always been kind to me and to our little girl, and provided abundantly for us, and I cannot bear to go on with the suit and have him suffer any longer from the injustice of such a claim by me."

"I have presented to the judge of the court a statement, which I have sworn to, asking him to dismiss my

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST COHEN

While Mat Cohen lies seriously ill with pneumonia at the Seelbach Hotel at Louisville, Inspector and Examiner H. E. James has issued a lot of charges against Cohen's conduct of the office of Commissioner of Agriculture. His friends say that as soon as Cohen is able to make a response he will amply vindicate himself. Among James' charges are that:

"Cohen not only padded expense accounts, but duplicated them to the Kentucky State Fair and to the state, including trips in which he was paid for judging at horse shows."

"Money was spent in 'wine banquets,' 'joy rides' and house parties."

"Expenditure of fair funds by Cohen was lavish and wasteful."

"More than 17,000 passes were issued by Cohen in two years."

"The woman's department was made a social center for Cohen's relatives and friends."

"Employment of 104 civilian police was unnecessary; 758 meals were given away in the official dining room and 700 press tickets were allowed the press agents."

"Uncle John Shell, Kentucky mountaineer, said to be the oldest man in the world, lacked $260 of getting all that was coming to him when he was the Fair's guest."

On behalf of Cohen, friends have declared the charges untrue.

MUNCY CONCERTS

Residents of Berea and vicinity were treated to an innovation in the way of a musical entertainment Monday afternoon and evening at the instigation of Muncy Bros. and Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd, soprano, assisted by Ardien Freiche, violinist.

The first entertainment was given in the tabernacle of Berea College, this being turned over to the firm for this purpose. This event was largely attended by students of the College and greatly appreciated. A most excellent program was elegantly rendered. The evening affair was at the store and greatly enjoyed by the citizens of the city and vicinity. The attendance was unusual in both cases and the appreciation very evident. Miss Shepherd's work with the Edison Re-Creation of her voice was out of the ordinary, as was that of various other artists.

Littlejohn's Shows Are Popular, As Usual

Littlejohn's Carnival is in town, a fact apparent to many, but it just has to be said that the little entertainer with the big entertainment is here again greeting his many old and many new friends, this being his chief characteristic. The shows are not "bigger" than ever, owing to the recent flood in Carlisle, however, they are good, in point of quality and number. The shows are to be seen at the Deatherage lot on Second street.

Veterans Recovering From the Operation

Oscar Stanifer and Rodes Terrill, the first two veterans of the late war to undergo surgical operations at the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary since that institution has been represented in the new hospital unit, are reported to be recovering in a very satisfactory manner. Both were operated on for hernia, and will be followed by others who will be sent to the hospital within a short time, since the government work is just getting under way.

"I hope you and other papers will publish this, as I know the above facts I have referred to and which have been published to do my husband an injustice and I am anxious to do what I can to right the wrong that your publication has done."

REAL ESTATE AT BOBTOWN ACTIVE

Many Changes Being Made But Few Old Residents Are Leaving the State

There seems to be considerable changing of real estate in the vicinity of Bobtown these days, scarcely a day passing but a farm is not bought and sold. Many of the owners are remaining "close by," however, with an occasional one moving out of the state. The transfer of property denotes the interest being manifested in the value of property there and the desire or many outsiders to buy in the locality. The crop prospects for the year are excellent, and the record for fruit and other produce is good. Some of those who have sold their farms have turned about and purchased other tracts of land, which they may improve to their own advantage and sell again within a few years. This manner of handling land is said to have been found very remunerative. Some of the highest prices paid for land in that vicinity have been for farms that have been improved for a period of a few years after which they would be sold at a big margin of profit. The value of land in the territory surrounding the center of the sales market during the past season is recognized by the old residents as well as any real estate man with any great knowledge, hence the activity in sales.

Among the very recent sales are the following:
C. P. Smith sold his farm to Boss Parson, of Berea, for $6,000.
L. L. Begley sold his farm where he has been living for $18,000 and has bought several hundred acres in Mississippi.

Frank Barger sold his farm which he purchased last year from W. F. Moody to Mr. Miracle, of Pineville, for $21,800.

R. L. Ambrose sold his farm to John Crowley, of Berea, for $3,850. Mr. Ambrose bought a house and lot in Berea, for which he paid $3,000, and will move there soon.

Big Melon Demand

The demand for melons continues, and dealers claim, increases with the close of the season. There has been a steady demand for them since the beginning of the season and local producers have been able to dispose of their production at a fair price, they assert. The vicinity of Waco is said to have taken the lead during the early part of the season and to have held it throughout, in the production of melons.

SULPHUR WELL DRILLED IN

Well drillers at Boonesboro Beach, drilling for a water well for summer colony use, report a fine well of white sulphur water at a depth of 68 feet, in the solid rock. The water has been tested and is said to be about the best and most healthful ever found thereabouts. The news was sent in to Dr. D. J. Williams, and he is well pleased.

NEW YORK EXPELS THREE SOCIALISTS WITH VIM

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 22.—The Assembly of the New York State Legislature by a vote of 90 to 45, in each case, expelled three of the five Socialist members—Louis Waldman and August Claessens, of New York, and Charles Solomon, of Kings county—and voted, 87 to 48, to permit Samuel A. Dewitt and Samuel Orr, Socialist members from the Bronx, to retain their seats. The two last named, however, after a vote to reinstate Waldman had been lost, 81 to 52, took the floor in turn and verbally tendered their resignations.

QUARREL OVER HOGS RESULTS IN MURDER

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 22.—On his way to church, Elbert Oldham, farmer, residing near Spottsville, in this county, was shot and killed by George Eastin, a neighbor.

They had quarreled over Eastin's hogs getting into Oldham's corn, according to witnesses. Oldham stopped Eastin and invited to settle the case out of court. Oldham said he did not want to fight; that his arm was paralyzed and that he preferred to settle the matter in court. Eastin became abusive, it is said, whereupon Oldham took off his coat and prepared to fight. As Oldham was placing his coat upon the ground Eastin opened fire. Three of the four bullets fired struck Oldham, who rose to his feet and pleaded with bystanders to take him to a doctor.

Eastin, apparently maddened by the fact that he had not killed his adversary, ran up behind Oldham and shot him in the back, witnesses declare. He died before medical aid could be summoned.

Oldham's father was killed 20 years ago by a tenant in a quarrel over hogs.

It is alleged Miss Rose applied at the March store for a position, and that the occurrence on which the indictments are based took place at that time, which was about a week ago. A bench warrant was issued against the accused who was held under $2,500 bond in each case, which was furnished.

NEW MADISON GYM WILL BE ENLARGED

This, Together With Manual Training Department, Will Make School Popular

Work has been started on the gymnasium building at the Madison High School and during the month of November, according to the present plans, the building will be completed and ready to turn over for use. It will be, according to plans now to be followed, a most modern and attractive gymnasium, for there have a number of changes agreed upon since the original plans were drawn.

One of the changes will be the enlargement of the building proper. The extreme length will now be 78, instead of 66 feet and the extreme width will be 47 feet. This will admit of seats being placed at each end of the building which will concentrate the attendance and spectators generally to the ends of the building, giving participants almost the entire floor space.

Work has been started by the brick masons and the building will soon take shape. This work will be followed by the inside finishing and the intention is to complete the building by the arrival of cold weather at which time it will be appreciated more than ever. It is the intention to devote more time to athletics and it is expected this will be one of the most popular adjuncts to the institution. The students have been calling for this for some time, and the board of directors decided that while they were building, they would place a very creditable and modern structure at the disposal of the students. This, together with the manual training department, will be given special attention, since some of the students are said to have shown unusual skill in much of this work and some of the exhibits are reported to be among the best in the state. There are some specimens that, it is said by experts in woodcraft, to vie in point of splendor with anything of the kind yet seen, and will be preserved.

WHISKY CAR TURNS OVER, KILLING ONE

Bowling Green, Ky., Sept. 22.—Bud Thomas, 34, a tool dresser of this city and a native of Scotts, ville, Ky., was instantly killed when his neck was broken, and Dick Graham, of this city, had a collar bone broken in an automobile Monday night, just this side of the intersection of the Woodburn and Nashville pike, when a car owned by Graham and driven by Thomas ran over a five foot embankment. The machine turned over and the men were pinned under the car. George Daly and W. W. Logan, of Franklin, were returning home from Bowling Green, and heard the cries of Graham. He told them to throw some whisky which he had in his machine over the fence in a field as he did not want to be caught with it. Daly, not thinking, did throw two fruit jars containing liquor into the field. Daly and Logan notified Squire Richard Buckner, of Woodburn, who at once summoned a jury and an inquest was held at midnight at the scene of the accident.

Warrants were issued today against Dick Graham charging him with unlawfully bringing liquor into prohibition territory and involuntary manslaughter.

TIME TO TELL FACTS DECLARES ALBRIGHT

Well Known Auto Dealer Says He Cannot Praise Tanlac Enough For The Way It Restored Himself and Wife To Health

"Tanalac has been of such great benefit to both my wife and myself I think it time for me to talk for the benefit of others," said C. E. Albright, well-known garage owner and automobile dealer, 888-892 East Market street, Akron, Ohio.

"Last summer my wife and I went on an extended tour through the west," he continued, "making a trip in seven weeks that should have taken months. We were on the go all the time and on returning to Akron in November we were both nervous wrecks from the strain.

"My nerves were so upset that I lay awake nearly all night and was in no shape to attend to business next day. I had no appetite, simply had to force down a little something trying to keep up my strength, but kept getting worse, and besides I always suffered from indigestion, sour stomach and heavy feelings after meals.

"Well, after dieting myself and taking different medicines without any results I became badly discouraged, in fact, seemed to be right on the verge of a nervous breakdown. Seeing Tanlac so highly endorsed I concluded to try it, and it certainly is remarkable how quickly I began to feel better. In just a day or two my appetite had a new start, I began to sleep better at night, and my indigestion and other troubles commenced to lose their grip.

"The first bottle helped me so much that I kept it up until now I am feeling as well as I ever did in my life. My appetite is better than ever. Why, I can hardly eat enough to satisfy me and I have not had a touch of indigestion since right soon after I began taking this medicine. I can now lie down and sleep the whole night through without waking up once. I have gained at least ten pounds in weight and I am feeling fit for whatever duties that come to hand. Tanlac has not only set me right, but it has done as much for my wife. I believe in giving everything its due and I want to say right here and now I can't praise Tanlac too highly for what it has done for us."

Tanalac is sold in Richmond by Stockton & Son, in Berea by the Welch Department Store; College Hill by Ginter Bros.

J. M. Combs, formerly of Lexington, has invented a non-sinkable bathing suit upon which he has produced a patent and will be made by an Akron, Ohio, rubber working company.

Here is Article Two of the League Covenant, the only workable and working organization for world peace that has been made since the dawn of history. The Democratic candidates and platform offer it for ratification, inviting any interpretations which can possibly clarify our national limitations and ideals. Governor Cox having already prepared two. The Senate republicans defeated it; the republican platform dodged it; and the republican candidate opposes it. He favors a separate peace with Germany, and after that he has no definite program to maintain world peace. In the article published below it is observed that the League begins its organization features:

The action of the League under this Covenant shall be effected through the instrumentality of an Assembly and of a Council with a permanent Secretariat.

Senator Harding On Farming

The attitude of the Republican candidate for president towards the agricultural interests of the country, at least his attitude before he became a candidate, can be seen from the following excerpt from a speech made in the senate on July 19, 1917:

"I know a little something about farming. I have followed the cradle, Senators, with the rake when wheat sold for 40 cents a bushel. That was in the day when farming was something of a contest for subsistence. In this latter day farming has become an occupation for profit, and I happen to know that, under normal conditions, dollar wheat makes a very profitable occupation, perhaps not to the farmer who farms the farmer, but it is to the farmer who farms the farm." (See Congressional Record, 1917, pages 5268 and 5269.)

Governor Cox, on the contrary, is in favor of giving the farmers of the country representation on the Interstate Commerce Commission, Tariff Commission and the Federal Reserve Bank boards, not only because he thinks the farmer deserves this, but that the national service would be benefited by such representation.

BRIGHT LITTLE GIRL DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Edna Louise White fell asleep late Tuesday evening at a local hospital, aged 12 years. She was the idolized daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. White, of Paint Lick, and had been ill only two weeks of peritonitis. She was allowed to stay but a little while, it seems, to teach the lessons of love, unselfishness and devotion, and her mission on earth was done. Perhaps no one ever received more of constant affection and unflinching tenderness, than she did, and her going away leaves an aching void.

She was a favorite in her school and in the community, and the idol of her fond parents and two sisters and a host of relatives. May the thought of her perfect peace and safety comfort the hearts of those so deeply grieved. God's finger touched her and she slept, while they who loved her watched and wept.

Funeral services will be held at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Riddell, on Woodland avenue, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the Richmond cemetery.

E. H. Sandlin is of the opinion that the State Fair is one of the biggest events of the state.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. FOUNT RICE

"Great truths are portions of the soul of man; great souls are portions of eternity."

When death came to Mrs. Ede Francis Rice, Sunday, September 19, 1920, it was her coronation day. The beautiful Christian life of more than three score years and ten had ended, and her Savior, whom she had loved and trusted for so long, took her to be with Him forever.

She was born in Madison county, December 1, 1847; was the daughter of Thomas R. Francis and Mary Behan, of Vicksburg, Miss. January 10, 1865, she was married to Fountain Rice, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Robert Beck, and 56 years did this splendid couple spend together, she being the first to go.

This devoted wife and mother was a woman of many gifts, of wonderful personality, endearing herself to those who knew her, and blessing each life with which she came in contact. She reared to manhood and womanhood four sons and eight daughters, ten of whom, besides her husband, are living—Thomas Rice, of Roswell, N. M.; Fountain Rice, Jr., of Springhill, Tenn.; Charles Rice, of Amis, Iowa; Mrs. Hugh Mason, of Prairie, Miss.; Misses Ede and Jessie Rice, of Atlanta, Ga.; Edna, Rebecca, Alma and Jane Rice, of this county. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Sidney Howe, of Colorado; one brother, Thomas K. Francis, St. Louis, Mo., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at her late residence Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock; then she was laid to rest in the Richmond cemetery. Many beautiful flowers were presented, expressing love and sympathy for the bereaved family.

ELECTRICITY FOR ### THE COUNTRY GARAGE

The motorist who has had even a season or so of experience knows well that he will never know when or where trouble is going to strike.

It may be from no apparent fault of his car—just his day to have trouble, that's all, or at least so it seems when the momentary hard luck comes.

It is this seeming idiosyncrasy that makes it a tremendous relief to find a well-equipped garage along the way—just where it will do the most good, in those times when something has gone wrong and a "feller needs a friend."

One thing that is essential to the well-equipped garage in any locality is electricity for light, power and battery charging and, with the development of the individual electric light and power plants, garage owners in the remoter districts are finding the way to enlarged possibility for service and increased opportunity for making money.

There is no way of lighting a garage after night equal to electric lights. There is no trouble lamp as good as the electric bulb on the end of an extension cord, with plenty of room to carry it around and under and behind and get so good a strong light just where it is needed.

One of these electric plants that will run motors, say up to half-horsepower, will take care of much of the light machinery in use about the garage—air compressor, lathe, drill press and so on. The power is available at the turn of a switch, a more satisfactory arrangement than to depend upon a gasoline engine.

A most satisfactory feature of electric service for the garage is the charging of automobile storage batteries. This can be accomplished with the independent electric plants. The writer recently saw 16 six-volt storage batteries in process of being charged by one of these electric plants. Many garage owners add considerably to their monthly revenue by pushing this feature of their service.

Greatest Weather For Corn Ever Known Here

This is said to be the greatest weather possible for corn, while tobacco is being benefited by it.

The corn, which is abundant and gives promise of being a record-breaking crop, is green, owing to the continued rains, farmers state and has grown to unusual size; but this weather, they assert, will ripen it rapidly thus making an abundance of fodder. The value of corn is recognized by the average farmer these days, and the prospects are good for the results from this crop showing, comparatively, far above that of tobacco, in many cases. In some localties, the corn is said to be from one-third to one-half greater than ever before on the same ground. Most of the Madison county crop was planted early, despite the fact that the beginning of the tobacco crop was on at the "time" of its start. It is believed that this will be the greatest corn year in the history of the state.

Fountains Have Arrived

The drinking fountains, some of them the non-freezing variety, to be placed at the Madison High School, have arrived and were taken from the railway yards and delivered today at the building by contractor Ben Hurst, who has charge of this part of the work of improvement at the school. The other work is progressing in a very satisfactory manner.

Troops have been called out in the Alabama mine district.

BAD REPUTATION

The East Indian mango is one of the greatest fruits of the world. To those who have really tasted the good sort of it the peach loses its places of highest honor. But the early travelers were more interested in describing its peculiarities than in extolling its wonderful fragrance and the depth of its flavor, for they told the plum and cherry eating inhabitants of the British Isles that the mango resembled a ball of tow soaked in turpentine and molasses, and said further that in order to eat it you must undress and climb into a bathtub and that after you ate it you must comb its yellow hairlike fibres out of your teeth.

No other fruit in the world has been so maligned. The mango trees which are now loaded with their golden fruits in south Florida, are so valuable that the mayors of the towns of South Florida are being beseeched to keep the boys from stealing the fruit from the trees, not because they are balls of tow soaked in molasses and turpentine but because as they hang on the tree, they are worth 25 or more cents apiece, and a boy can eat up a five-dollar bill's worth in the time it takes to tell about it.

The Office of Foreign Seed and Plant Introduction of the United States Department of Agriculture has assembled through the work of its explorers and through exchange with the British East India department of agriculture, one of the largest collections of selected mango varieties in the world. They are now fruiting at the Plant Introduction Field Station, Miami, Fla., about 20 varieties this year, and these represent the selections from more than 70 sorts of this great fruit. Some of these have scarcely more fibre in them than a freestone peach and can be cut open lengthwise and eaten as easily with a spoon as a Rocky Ford cantaloupe. They have an indescribably agreeable aroma reminiscent of pineapples. The mango tree, when it is bearing, is a gorgeous sight, for it is a large long-lived tree and the golden-yellow fruit as they hang in great clusters from the dark-green foliage make one of the great tropical plant sights of the world.

The mango has come as a tree crop in Florida and, although it is tender and can not be grown above the line of heavy freezes, it is destined to add greatly to the charm of life in the tip end of the Florida peninsula.

Repair and improvement work at the Madison High school is going on as well as the school, in a very satisfactory manner.

INTRODUCTION OF PHYSICAL CULTURE

Kentucky Much In Need of It—Starts on First Year of Work
—Teachers Interested

Physical education and fire drills, in accordance with the new laws, are now considerations at Eastern Normal this year, when they will be in evidence to a greater extent than usual. Special exercises and drills will for a part of the work which it attracts much attention since its installation. There will be special instructors and everything in the way of instruction and exercise included in the work which has already been taken up and which will be dwelt upon extensively.

The subject of physical education, in accordance with instructions or suggestions upon the part of George Colvin, head of the State Educational board, were taken at the various institutes and in some localities where it was introduced for the first time it was discussed extensively. This will assist teachers and instructors generally in handling the new work, since after this year it will form an important feature in connection with the issuing of certificates for teaching. Thus far there has been no reduction in averages in this regard. In this regard, the need is very great in some sections of the state, as reports by the official bulletin will show.

Twenty-eight per cent of all Kentuckians examined by draft boards were physically unfit for military service. We mean to improve our educational system so that in the future a much larger per cent of our people will be fit for the duties of war and peace.

Sixty per cent of all sickness and 47 per cent of all deaths in Kentucky are due to preventable diseases. This is the greatest loss and greatest expense which the people have to bear. By the aid of the health authorities we aim to work out a practical program of instruction and training which will greatly reduce the amount of sickness and the number of deaths from preventable diseases.

Reports show that the rural sections make even worse showing than the cities from the standpoint of health and physical fitness. Our special concern will be to endeavor to devise practical measures for the improvement of the health and physical fitness of country children. They need physical education of the proper sort even more than city children.

NO EVIDENCE FOUND IN PARSONS CASE

Harlan, Ky., Sept. 22—The Harlan county grand jury, which reassembled Monday after a week's adjournment, to resume investigation of the murder of Miss Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain Settlement School teacher, reported to Circuit Judge W. T. Davis that they had obtained no further evidence that would warrant any indictments. They also reported that they had no further witnesses to examine, and Commonwealth's Attorney J. G. Forrester and County Attorney J. F. Forrester stated to the court that they had no further evidence to put before the grand jury, and the jury was discharged by Judge Davis. It is probable that no indictments will ever be made as detectives employed on the case have returned to Cincinnati and the crime remains as much a mystery as it was the day the body of Miss Parsons was found near a ledge of rock on the lonely mountain trail two weeks ago.
